A Special Evening With...

Dr. Leonard Levin
James Monroe
Birthplace
Thursday July 2,
6:30pm

Our country's fourth President was born in Westmoreland County. Levin, Assistant Superintendent of the Birthplace, will share the history of the county, the Monroe family's immigration, and how the Birthplace was reclaimed and restored.

Pippi's Anything Can Happen Party
Thursday July 9,
5:30pm

Get ready for a wildly fun, topsy-turvy adventure with Pippi...in person! Enjoy lively readings from the beloved books by Astrid Lindgren. Games, crafts, trivia, bingo and a pancake bar are all part of the party. Wear your silliest socks! All ages!

Lee Taylor
Sip & Sew: Make a
Wine/Treat Bag
Thursday July 16, 6:00pm

Join Lee Taylor, owner of Sewlovelee Quilt Shop, for a fun and creative hands-on sewing class. Participants will create their own stylish handled fabric gift bag perfectly sized to hold a wine or olive oil bottle, flowers, or small gifts. Pre-registration required, limit 12 people.

Shelli Robertson
AI Demystified: Uses,
Risks, and Real-
World Impact
Thursday July 23,
6:30pm

Shelli Robertson

What is Artificial Intelligence and how does it work? Learn the basics of AI, from how machines learn and make decisions to the many ways AI is already being used in everyday life. This seminar will give you the tools to navigate our AI-driven world and make informed decisions.

No Experience Required:
Intro to Coding
Thursday July 30, 6:30pm

If you can follow a recipe or give someone directions, you can code! This one hour seminar is designed for adults who have never written a single line of code. The program will start with an easy-to-understand overview and proceed to the basic structure of coding. Watch a live step-by-step example of building a website from scratch!

Dr. Dawne Y. Curry
When the People Sing:
Protest Music and
Freedom Struggles in South Africa
Thursday August 6,
6:30pm

This Professor of History and Ethnic Studies at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln teaches courses in African History. A US Fulbright Scholar, she was an honors graduate of Lancaster High School. Dr. Curry's talk will examine South Africa's history under apartheid through music as a form of resistance and catharticism.
